MEETING MINUTES

Guest Speaker

Col Mark Johnson, Commander 635th Supply Chain Operations Wing, briefed the capabilities, limitations and vision of the AFGLSC. He emphasized the importance of supply logisticians understanding the customer's needs, specifically the needs of the maintainers. Additionally, he gave a listing of points of contact for any GLSC-related issues. Further details of the brief are in the slides Capt Adams sent out yesterday.

Scholarships

Capt John Adams presented the $500 LOA Scholarships to TSgt Jason Hereford of the 15th MXS and Ms. Dawn Chang of the 735th AMS recognition of their outstanding accomplishments and commitment towards higher education.

Fundraising

Mr. Greg Anthony volunteered to serve as the Chapter Fundraising Chair. He presented some fundraising ideas involving coupon sales through Zippy's or Pizza Hut. We'll vote on which fundraiser to do. Look for an email (with voting buttons) in the future with the details.

Upcoming Events

Red Hill tour: Package to set up the tour is staffed. Tentative dates are 22 Nov 1300 – 1500 or 24 Nov at a time to be determined. More information to come.

Treasury

After scholarships, our treasury sits at $2,387.25.

We are always interested in discussing future activities for the chapter to include fund raisers, community involvement, tours and academic lessons. If any of you have ideas you'd like to have considered pass them to us and we'll discuss at the next LOA Kanaloa Chapter meeting.

For your reference, the LOA web site is: <http://www.loanational.org>. The Kanaloa Chapter website is: <https://www.loanational.org/chapters/index.php?id=17>.

Next LOA Kanaloa Chapter meeting is TBD. If any of you have any questions please shoot me an email or give me a call.
